SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 38

Senator Sarpalius offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum is the oldest museum in the state, maintaining the largest historical collection, and under the dynamic leadership of Director Byron Price it has become one of the foremost innovative museums in the country, boasting a first-class conservation center; and

WHEREAS, Organizing a conservation program to serve the museum's collections in 1979, the conservation center was requested by the Texas State Library to restore 40 priceless historic Texas flags; this request was soon followed by one to preserve and restore more than 100 paintings in the Capitol rotunda; and

WHEREAS, The first comprehensive study of Capitol artwork, the State Painting Project, included treating paintings damaged in the Capitol fire; and

WHEREAS, Through the hard work and dedication of Chief Conservator Mary Frederickson of the Texas Conservation Center and her highly trained staff, these damaged paintings have been restored to their former glory; and

WHEREAS, The three paintings, "Dawn at the Alamo," "Battle of San Jacinto," and a portrait of Mirabeau B. Lamar hold cherished places in the hearts of all Texans for they represent our history and traditions in a special way; and

WHEREAS, The diligent staff of the Center worked painstakingly for more than nine months to achieve their splendid restoration efforts; using chemical solvents and heat, the restorers again made the paintings a focal point within the Senate Chamber and a source of pride for all Texans; and

WHEREAS, Since its inception, the Texas Conservation Center has a richly deserved and growing national reputation for the excellence of its restoration and conservation work; and

WHEREAS, Creating a place where the cultural heritage of all Texans can be cared for has been the goal of Chief Conservator Mary Frederickson, Painting Conservator Tony Rajer, and Textile Conservator Ruth Moore; and

WHEREAS, The arduous efforts of Mary Frederickson and her talented staff will continue to be appreciated by all Texans both now and in the years to come; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the 69th Legislature of the State of Texas hereby commend Byron Price, Mary Frederickson, and the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum for their generous support and outstanding contributions to the Capitol restoration efforts; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be prepared for Byron Price, Mary Frederickson, and the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum as an expression of deepest gratitude from the Texas Legislature.
